WASHINGTON, DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, UNITED STATES, September 22, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Following the death of Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg, former White House and Congress spokesman Robert Weiner appeared live on Britain's #1 Radio news, LBC (Leading Britain's Conversation), on September 19, to discuss the impact her death will have.

WEINER PREDICTED THAT PRESIDENT TRUMP AND REPUBLICAN SENATORS WILL FACE "A HUGE BACKLASH" that could result in a "wave election" AND COULD BE "PRESSURED" TO DELAY A VOTE ON A REPLACEMENT until after the election or even to when the new President is inaugurated. Weiner also discussed conversations he'd had with Justice Ginsburg.

Weiner also just published an op-ed with senior policy analyst Wesam Farah for OpEdNews (ranked H2, nation's #2 op-ed) about how Maryland Governor Larry Hogan, the National Governors' Association Chair, was wrong to not automatically send Maryland residents ballots in the mail, and instead of setting a positive precedent for democracy, was acting on Trump's behalf. The article is titled, "Hogan No Hero on Voting":

Weiner and his team have written several other recent op-eds about Covid 19 and other subjects and participated in a variety of media appearances.

Op-eds:

Weiner and RWA/Solutions for Change Bluestein Family Foundation Senior Policy analyst, Ben Lasky wrote an op-ed in the influential Milwaukee Journal Sentinel (ranked H2, nation's #2 op-ed) on August 13 about how the DNC platform still matters, but Joe Biden must go to Wisconsin frequently during the campaign in order to make up for scrapping the convention in Milwaukee. The article had impact.
