

Experience

- National Press Club: Robert Weiner Associates and Solutions for Change (policy analyst): Co-authoring and pitching op-eds on national issues for publication in major newspapers and magazines Fall 2017
- Office of Governor John Hickenlooper (policy intern): Completed long-term research project on parole and re-entry policies to be used by policy advisor working on re-entry policy; researched nuanced issues including traffic accident liability and electric grid cybersecurity; addressed constituent concerns regarding both policy issues and government services Summer 2017
- Colorado Democratic Party (summer organizing fellow): Aided the campaigns of Hillary Clinton, Michael Bennet, and Morgan Carroll by registering voters, recruiting volunteers, training volunteers, and entering data; gained significant knowledge of Voter Action Network (VAN) and exceeded weekly voter outreach goals Summer 2016
- Meg Froelich for State Representative (data analyst): Worked closely with campaign manager to determine where to target persuasion and get-out-the-vote efforts based on data analysis; gained experience using VAN Spring 2016
- Greenwood Village City Council Member Jerry Presley (intern): Attended semi-weekly meetings of the Council; discussed issues including the municipal budget and regulations with Mr. Presley; drafted summaries of meetings and offered input on issues facing the Council Spring 2015
- Andrew Romanoff for Congress (summer intern): Interned in outreach department, responsible for courting specific constituencies such as women, veterans and Latinos. Responsibilities included organizing, advertising, and staffing events; making fundraising and persuasion phone calls; and entering data into VAN Summer 2014

Education

Georgetown University (GU); Washington, DC (expected to graduate May 2020)

School: Georgetown College; Intended majors: Economics (major GPA: 4.0), Mathematics (major GPA: 4.0); Overall GPA: 3.88
Honors/Awards: Second Honors (Fall 2016, awarded for GPA above 3.7), First Honors (Spring 2017, awarded for GPA above 3.9)

Cherry Creek High School (CCHS); Greenwood Village, CO (graduated May 2016)

GPA: 4.45; Honors/Awards: Academic High Honors (awarded for GPA above 3.75), Excellence in Activities (awarded for leadership in extracurricular activities by vote of faculty), National AP Scholar (awarded for scores of 5 on all eight Advanced Placement exams taken)
Activities: Speech and Debate (captain of top 10 team in the nation, National Tournament Qualifier 2016 – top 70 in US Extemporaneous Speaking), CCHS Young Democrats (co-founder, co-president), Varsity Tennis, National Honor Society

Activities/Organizations

- Fly on the Wall Podcast (research director): Researching guests for student-run podcast through the GU Institute of Politics and Public Service; brainstorming guests; assisting with social media promotion Spring 2017-present
- GU Israel Alliance (member): Fostering pro-Israel dialogue with campus leaders; expanding Alliance's network through involvement with other campus organizations; represented Alliance at Summer 2017 AIPAC Saban Leadership Seminar Spring 2017-present
- GU Institute of Politics and Public Service (research team, Student Advisory Board member): Researching high-profile speakers hosted by the Institute, in preparation for events; assisting with event logistics; selected to participate in Campaign Bootcamp program focusing on how to run campaigns; selected to introduce Interior Secretary Sally Jewell and White House Senior Advisor Brian Deese at event; selected to attend Domestic Policymaking in the Digital Age event at the White House; (beginning this fall) assisting Institute staff by facilitating student engagement and brainstorming engagement opportunities as member of Student Advisory Board Fall 2016 - present
- GU College Democrats (leadership team, debate representative): Represented College Democrats on economic issues in a debate versus freshmen from College Republicans; topics included debt ceiling, minimum wage, taxes/spending, equal pay, and balancing environmental protection with economic costs 2016-2017
- GU Bipartisan Coalition (deputy policy director): Coordinating events that foster bipartisan dialogue; analyzing poll data regarding political climate on campus; working closely with bipartisan leadership to maintain organization's neutrality on political issues 2016-2017

Technical Skills

Spanish: Speak conversationally, read, write

Software: Microsoft Word, Microsoft Excel, Microsoft OneNote, Microsoft PowerPoint, Adobe Photoshop, VAN

Social Media: Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Snapchat, WordPress