

The Washington Post

Democracy Dies in Darkness

This simple penalty would do wonders for democracy

Washington Post Quote by Robert Weiner

Robert Weiner Associates

Apr 10, 2026

Robert Weiner was quoted in the Washington Post in this Letter to the Editor on “reconstruction, birthright citizenship and Trump’s decor, in readers’ eyes”,” stating:

Robert Weiner, Accokeek

“It’s great that at least one Supreme Court justice, Samuel A. Alito Jr., can see that “what we are dealing with is something that was unknown at the time — illegal immigration.” I’m confident that the justice will say the same thing next time the court considers an assertion that semiautomatic, large-magazine rifles firing bullets designed to maim an enemy are what the Framers had in mind when they proposed the Bill of Rights in 1789. After all, to do otherwise might give the impression ... that ... uh ...”

Robert Weiner is a former spokesman in the Clinton and Bush White Houses and senior staff for Congressmen John Conyers, Charles Rangel, Claude Pepper, Ed Koch, Sen. Ted Kennedy, and 4-Star Gen. Barry McCaffrey.

Link to the full Letter to the Editor: This simple penalty would do wonders for democracy